SIGNATURE SCHOLARSHIPS AT BYU-IDAHO

A BYU-Idaho Signature Scholarship offers a way for you to support students and personally witness the tremendous impact you have in their lives. Three characteristics make a Signature Scholarship unique:

1. Naming and Designation

A Signature Scholarship allows you to name your scholarship—for yourself, your organization, or a loved one. You may also designate your scholarship for students from one of four BYU-Idaho fundraising priorities.*

2. Annual Gathering

Each fall, Signature Scholarship donors are invited to campus to meet with scholarship recipients. This event, which may include a luncheon, gives you the opportunity to meet the students you support, hear about how the scholarships are blessing their lives, and build new friendships.

3. Affordability

Whereas named scholarships are typically reserved for large endowments, Signature Scholarships are feasible for donors in many financial situations. They can be started with a donation of $10,000, which generally will fund two students for two semesters. The university encourages providing this support for four years.

* Proposed scholarship names will be reviewed and approved by BYU-Idaho.

 This constitutes an expression of your charitable intent and does not represent a contract, promise, binding pledge, debt, or legal obligation to pay.

If you are ready to establish a Signature Scholarship and start changing lives, or if you need more information before making a decision, fill out the detachable form and return it to the address provided, scan the QR code, or visit philanthropies.ChurchofJesusChrist.org/BYUI/Signature.

[†] Donations may be received throughout the year and will be awarded starting with the semester following the donation. A scholarship will be awarded each year as long as there are sufficient funds in the account to cover current tuition costs. If there are not sufficient amounts in the Signature Scholarship to make any awards for a period of two consecutive annual giving cycles, then any remaining amounts will be combined with other Signature Scholarships having a similar purpose and the Signature Scholarship will no longer be maintained.
